MAUI PEOPLE FORMULATE WANTS

THE VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS THROUGH COMMITTEES TELL LEGISLATORS WHAT IS NEEDED

WAILUKU, January 12.—A meeting of representative bodies of this district was held at the court house last evening, as the result of a call by Mr. Kepoikai, who is chairman of the District Committee of Maui. On last Saturday afternoon a public meeting was held on Market street, where Kepoikai addressed a large number of citizens with reference to appropriations which should be asked of the legislature through our representatives. He then selected twelve men from the different political parties, and also asked the executive committee of the Improvement Association and of the Wailuku precinct club to prepare their needs and present them at the meeting which was held last night. After explaining the object of the meeting, Mr. Kepoikai was unanimously chosen chairman for the evening. He then called for reports from different bodies. The citizens' committee through T. B. Lyons presented numerous matters which can be taken up by our representatives at the coming term of the legislature. The poor condition of roads on Maui was the main object discussed by all present. Mr. Lyons also spoke very strongly against the tax law making it imperative for all those owning real estate to pay their taxes. Each item was taken up separately and acted upon, and there is no doubt but that the Maui representatives will have their hands full with recommendations of all kinds. Mr. Kepoikai also stated that the District executive committee had taken up the matter of appropriations for this island, and have forwarded letters to the Governor and Superintendent Holloway, asking them to push forward appropriations for this island.

SHE WAS VERY WISE.

Youthful in years, but of determined spirit, was the little Bowdoinham (Me.) girl who was required to write a composition on the seasons. Most displeased at her task, when driven to it, she produced the following unique article: "There are four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter. Some like one best, and some like another; but for my part, give me liberty, or give me death."

THE AMERICAN VOTER.

Just before sailing for England James Bryce publicly bore testimony to the intelligence and sobriety of the foreign voter in the United States. John Morley, after spending a few hours in the Chicago election booths, was similarly impressed. The mere intricacies of the ballot, he said, would seriously tax the average English elector. These opinions are valuable at a time when our foreign-born population is coming in for good deal of criticism.—New York Evening Post.

A Russian and a Japanese ship happened to reach London on the same day recently and there was plenty of trouble right away. After the police had cleaned things up it was found that one Russian had been stabbed and that a Japanese was in jail madly yelling "Banzai."
